

Bilisha — Design Reference

Recreate these frames in Figma using the values below. Everything here matches the real HTML/CSS exactly.

COLORS

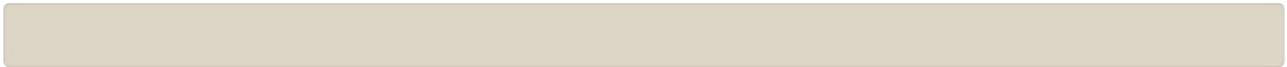

Paper
#FAF7F0

Ink
#1B1D23

Red accent
#B3261E

Hairline
#DDD6C6

TYPOGRAPHY

Headline — Source Serif 4

Body / UI text — Inter, 400 & 500 weight

Headline size
~28-44px
Body size
16-18px

Frame 1 — Homepage

Monday, September 21, 2026

Bilisha

All Stories Local World Business Sports

Local

City Council Approves New Riverside Park

A 12 acre park will open next spring on the eastern riverbank after the council voted yes.

By Maya Chen

MORE HEADLINES

Local Bakery Opens Two More Locations

Business

School District Testing a 4 Day School Week

Local

© 2026 Bilisha

Layout: 2/3 lead story + 1/3 side list, separated by a hairline (not a card or shadow). Stacks vertically on mobile.

Frame 2 — Article Page

Monday, September 21, 2026

Bilisha

← back to home

Local

City Council Approves New Riverside Park

By Maya Chen

The city council voted 7 to 0 on Tuesday to fund a new park along the eastern riverbank.

Construction starts in October and the park should open by next spring.

© 2026 Bilisha

Article body max-width ~620px for comfortable reading line length.

Frame 3 — Add Article Form

Bilisha

Add a new article

Title

Article title

Category

Local

Author

Staff Writer

Summary

Short summary

Full Article

Full story text

Post Article

© 2026 Bilisha

Form fields: 1px hairline border, 3px radius, red button. No card container around the form itself — it sits directly on the paper background.

